All tickets are subject to additional service charges and fees.

Although we make every effort to ensure that your additional ticket seating is comparable to your season ticket location, this is not always possible. Additional ticket requests are processed in the order in which they are received. To guarantee priority seating, please be sure to order your additional tickets before they go on sale to the general public, however, you may place your order at any time prior to the performance. If you order additional tickets before they go on sale to the general public, they will be mailed to you within four weeks. There are no refunds or exchanges for additional tickets and seating is not guaranteed. Show dates, on-sale dates, times, prices and artists are subject to change without notice. Tickets are purchased under Broadway Across America season ticket privileges and are subject to the terms and conditions of that relationship. We do not support the reselling of these tickets beyond face value through any means other than through authorized reselling programs of Broadway Across America. Doing so will constitute a breach of this season ticket privilege and the account holder will be subject to revocation of their purchasing status and seats.
